DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Tang (U.S. Patent No. 6,507,416).

Regarding claim 1, Tang discloses a structure of a scanner capable of adjusting lightness of a line to be scanned, comprising:

a chassis (chassis 5, col. 3, lines 3-6); a light base which a light tube is mounted, the light base being mounted above the chassis (fig. 6A, B & C col. 3 line 52 through col. 4, line 6 and claim 4);

Art Unit: 2622

at least one adjusting device mounted between the chassis and the light base for driving the light base to change relative distance between the light tube and a line to be scanned on a document to be scanned (fig. 6A, B & C col. 3 line 52 through col. 4, line 6).

Regarding claim 5, Tang discloses the structure of a scanner capable of adjusting lightness of a line to be scanned in accordance with claim 1, wherein the adjusting device is a cam (fig. 6A, lamp holder 729).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-4, 6 and 7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
